MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING HEARING

The defendant, Ronald Kevin Graves, through undersigned counsel, hereby moves this on Honorable Court for an order continuing the sentencing hearing that is presently set for Friday, Speed
May 31, 2013, at 3:30 p.m. to a date at least 45 days after May, 31, 2013, that is not on a Friday. Indu

As grounds for this motion, the defendant would show that some additional time is with a needed in order to complete an investigation regarding certain matters contained in the new presentence investigation report. Additionally, defense counsel needs additional time to date and complete an investigation into certain mitigating facts that he may wish to present on behalf of time for Mr. Graves at the sentencing hearing. Counsel believes that he can complete this investigation moving.
within 45 days. The defendant requests that the hearing be set on a day that is not a Friday L. Lee because the Office of Federal Public Defender is closed on Fridays due to a lack of funding. W. Lee

Undersigned counsel has consulted with Assistant United States Attorney William Lee 5-17-13
Deneke and he has indicated that the government is not opposed to the requested continuance.

WHEREFORE, Mr. Graves respectfully requests that this Court issue an order continuing the sentencing hearing in this case for approximately 45 days.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ R. David Baker
